

Please do not cave in to the banking industry and change Wisconsin's "Do Not Call" law. The federal law is way too lenient and contradictory to the public will. Citizens should not have to go to great lengths and spend money on devices to keep telemarketers from constantly interrupting their privacy. Model the federal law after Wisconsin's law. This is what the public wants.